

How to Join/Renew:

Through CCRA website

<https://retirees.centennialcollege.ca/>

- Complete e-Transfer Registration Form and submit fees electronically
- Download Mail-in Registration Form and mail with cheque

During the documentation confirmation session, the Centennial College Human Resources' Pension Consultant assists you with the submission of the membership form to CCRA. Centennial College pays for the first year of membership for retirees who join in the year of their retirement.

Contact Us :

General Information/ Inquiries

Tel: (416) 289-5291

Email: ccra.board.mail@gmail.com

Membership inquiries

Email: ccra.membership@gmail.com

Mailing Address

Centennial College Retirees' Association
PO Box 631, Stn. A
Toronto, ON
M1K 5E9

Website

<https://retirees.centennialcollege.ca/>

Centennial College
RETIREES'
ASSOCIATION

Centennial College
RETIREES'
ASSOCIATION

A volunteer organization established in 2002 comprised of retired faculty, administrative and support staff of Centennial College. The Centennial College Retirees' Association (CCRA) thanks the Centennial College President's Office for their ongoing support of our organization.

Mission Statement

To promote the interest of Centennial College retirees by providing its members with fellowship, pertinent information and response to their concerns

CCRA acts to:

- Promote continuing contact and dialogue among retired members of the Centennial College community through:
 - Social and recreational events
 - Communication through the CCRA website and emails
- Advocate for Centennial College retirees
- Liaise with retiree groups such as other community college retirees' associations and the Ontario Colleges Retirees' Association (OCRA)
- Promote the interests of Centennial College and its programs within the community
- Maintain a formal relationship with the college at the Presidential level to ensure the continuity and independence of CCRA

Membership offers:

- Ongoing communication through emails and the CCRA website
- Invitation to social functions and activities
- Opportunities to meet with colleagues
- An open invitation to CCRA's Annual General meetings
- Opportunity to attend Board meetings as a guest
- Membership in the Ontario Colleges Retirees' Association (OCRA)
- An opportunity to serve on the CCRA volunteer Board of Directors

CCRA gives back:

- Offering the Centennial College Retirees' Association Scholarship, annually
- Support the College's volunteer community events such as:
 - Run for the Cure
 - Child Care Family Christmas Baskets
 - Sustainability Projects

Why Join?

- Attend luncheons and activities for members and guests to reconnect with other retired colleagues and friends
- Enjoy interesting speakers at luncheons
- The CCRA supports community projects chosen from the interests of its members
- Participate in a variety of social events organized in partnership with the Centennial College Alumni Association
- Your annual membership with the CCRA pays for membership with OCRA.
- Obtain access to a library card and enjoy borrowing privileges at campus libraries
- CCRA members receive direct discounts to some Continuing Education courses and Alumni events

